Hi all,

I am looking for a few students between grades 5 and 12 for 2020. I am a writing specialist who teaches lifelong writing skills through uniquely crafted lessons. It is common for my students to improve by a letter grade. I have a limited schedule, so if you are interested please let me know soon. Here are a few reviews:

Dustin is an excellent teacher who is always utterly open to communicate and help his students. He is willing to help his students when they have last-minute assignments. He treasures students' time and recognizes their needs during the class, and he always explains materials patiently until students fully understand them. Dustin has helped me to improve my critical thinking skills. He taught me how to analyze readings effectively, how to write in-depth essays, use figurative language, and implicitly and explicitly demonstrate theme.

Sandy, 12th grade English student
